

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1906.

NO. 51.

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

Are you in favor of Law and Order? Are you unwilling for your boy or any one else's boy to become a curse to his family, his community and his family? Are you in favor of ridding this county of a business which produces only wrecked lives, unhappy, destitute homes, broken-hearted wives and orphan children? Are you in favor of ridding this county of its vagabond and criminal class? If you are, then stand with the best citizens and all of the noble, christian women of this county and vote

"YES"

ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12TH.

Educational Ballot

Are you opposed to the Sale, Barter or Lave of Spirituous, Vinous or Milt Liquors in Lincoln county, the provisions of the law and prohibition to be applied to Druggists?

YES ☒

NO ☐

FARMER'S DEPARTMENT.

E. L. King sold a mule here yesterday for $130.
Dan Patch lowered his record to 1:55 at St. Paul last week.

L. A. Fariss sold to E. B. Powell a pair of mules for $130.
E. B. Powell sold to B. G. Fox four yearling mules for $300.

A thoroughbred shorthorn bull for sale. R. C. Hocker, Stanford.
B. G. Fox & Co. bought 80 mule colts in Mercer county at $35 to $80.

FOR SALE.—40 yearling cattle. L. P. Nunnelle, R. R. No. 2, Lancaster, Ky.

C. C. Carpenter bought of E. B. Powell a two-year-old mare mule for $155.

J. M. Reynolds, of Waynesburg, raised a water-melon that weighed 52½ pounds.

J. D. Vaughan & Bro. bought 2,300 bushels of wheat in Lincoln county at 75cts.—Liberty News.

Sheriff C. A. Arnold, of Garrard, has bought the Orand farm of 235 acres, near Marksburg, at $70.

P. McGarvey sold to John Hagan a bunch of lambs at $5 and some stock hogs at 7c.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

E. B. Powell bought of John Steele Carpenter eight thoroughbred Berkshire sows and 40 pigs and 14 stockers for $300.

FOR SALE.—20 one and two-year-old steers and heifers. Also a few good stock hogs. J. M. Johnson & Co., Waynesburg, Ky.

I have 20 acres of land I wish to rent for wheat or rye, the latter preferred. Land adjoins Dr. Fowler's farm. Mrs. Clifton Fowler, Stanford.

The Kentucky Supply Company has purchased 1,500 tons of baled hay in Boyle, Garrard and Lincoln counties at prices ranging from $9 to $12 per ton.—Danville Herald.

W. M. Dodd, of Hustonville, had phenomenal luck at the Columbia and Burksville fairs. He made 14 shows and won 14 blue ties. He sold a Galton gelding to W. L. Grady, of Adair, for $500.

COURT DAY.—There were about 250 cattle on the market yesterday, some 150 of them changing hands at 2 to 3.35. Mule colts were in great demand at $50 to $107.50. B. W. Gaines selling Sidney Dunbar one at that price. Horses were also high.

The September crop report of the State Agricultural Department, issued by Commissioner Hubert Vreeland, says that, upon the whole, the outlook for a good crop of tobacco is not flattering, as considerable damage has been done on lowlands by too much wet weather, which has caused the leaves to rot off in the field.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Thomas J. Candler, a well-known hotel man of Somerset, is dead.

George W. Jelf, aged 70 and an ex-Confederate soldier, is dead in Jessamine.

A six-year-old child of Joseph Coffey, of Wildie, fell into a tub of boiling water and was fearfully scalded.

Mrs. G. G. Fair, formerly of Lincoln county, is dead at Hartford. She suffered a fall some 18 months ago and never got over it.

Thirty-three sturdy young men, mostly from the mountain districts of Kentucky, were in Danville Wednesday to take the civil service examination for the revenue service in Kentucky.

Lewis Oatts, a Wayne county horseman, who came up last week to attend the Fair, died in Dr. Scott's office Sunday afternoon of heart trouble. His remains were taken to Monticello.—Somerset Mountaineer.

The second story of the Garrard Bank & Trust Company's building will be built especially for the Bastin Telephone Co. and will consist of several offices, operating room, work shop, waiting room, in fact every modern convenience for the comfort of the public and the giving of first class service.—Lancaster Record.

At a meeting of the Lancaster council Mr. Burton Vance, of Louisville, made application for a franchise to construct an electric railway through the streets of Lancaster for the purpose of making a line from Hubble to Hickman at the mouth of Sugar Creek. Mr. Vance is interested with others in developing the ore called barytes, which has been discovered in inexhaustible quantities near Hubble.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

Dr. Jacob F. Force, former president of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, will have to serve three and one-half years in prison at hard labor unless the Minnesota Supreme Court grants him a new trial.

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so agreeable and so natural you can hardly realize that it is produced by a medicine. These tablets also cure indigestion and biliousness. Price 25c. Samples free at Stanford Drug Co.

NEWS NOTES.

James Fee, one of the oldest citizens of Paris, is dead.

At Winchester S. M. Holland was shot by R. S. Noland and died in a few hours. Holland was a life insurance man and Noland is a barber.

Three men were killed and a dozen seriously injured by the falling of the second floor of a new factory building under construction at Elyria, O.

Ricardo Forte was hanged at West Chester, Pa., for the murder of two children, Marie and Dominick Di Lucca, aged four and nine years respectively.

Public Printer Stillings is having a heavy demand for copies of the booklet containing the list of 300 words prepared by the Simplified Spelling Board.

While watching an airship at Dayton, O., Harry Lehman and J. S. Trake were struck by a switch engine, Lehman being instantly killed and Trake fatally injured.

County Attorney Kelley, of Trigg county, is indicted by the grand jury on a charge of having converted to his own use $4,700 in his hands as Commissioner and belonging to the Blakeley estate.

In a Boston hospital Mrs. David E. Sharretts, whose husband was a cashier in the War Department at Washington, witnessed his death, and five minutes later fell lifeless on his corpse, having shot herself.

Robbers rendered George Lewis, of Martin's Ferry, O., insensible, placed his body on a railroad track, and just before a train arrived James Arbaugh rescued the man. Lewis may die as a result of his injuries.

Two little Lewis county girls, 12 and 14 years of age, picked over 1,400 gallons of blackberries this season, receiving 15 cents per gallon for same. The proceeds will be used to pay for their tuition in a private school this year.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MATRIMONIAL.

H. W. Beacum and Miss Edna Shiveels, of Junction City, were married last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel J. Walker announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice, to Mr. Robert C. Brewer, of Chelsea, Indiana Territory. The wedding will take place the 3rd of October at high noon.—Lancaster Record.

Mr. James B. Cook, formerly of Hustonville, but now a prosperous business man of Nashville, was married Wednesday to Miss Lena Thurman, a pretty and popular young lady of that place. The two had been sweethearts for several years and now that their fond hopes have been realized we hope they are very happy. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will make Nashville their home for the present, where the best wishes of the groom's many Lincoln county friends and relatives will always be with him and his bonnie bride.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Acts on Nature's Plan.

The most successful medicines are those that aid nature. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. Take it when you have a cold and it will allay the cough, relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and aid nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. Price, 35c. Large size, 50c. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

A very religious family living near Nicholasville has a hen that perched herself upon the fender of the buggy and came to church with them. After services the hen passed the Methodist church and sang all the way home. It is said she won't lay an egg on Sunday or do anything that would be a desecration to the Sabbath.—Jessamine Journal.

Stop It!

A neglected cough or cold may lead to serious bronchial or lung troubles. Don't take chances when Foley's Honey and Tar affords perfect security from serious effects of a cold. Penny's Drug Store.

The leaves will soon be sad and sere, The reds will turn to greens And we shall see appear The Christmas magazines.

Judge Banker, at Findlay, O., overruled a motion to quash the information filed against John D. Rockefeller and all the Standard Oil cases.

Fall Showing of Shoes.

We are receiving daily from the best manufacturers shoes for the whole family. Portsmouth Shoes for the little ones. Selby Shoes for ladies. Excelsior Shoes for little gents' and boys. Eclipse shoes for men. Let us show you.

W. E. Perkins, Crab Orchard, Kentucky.

DON'T LET THIS BARGAIN PASS!

Having decided to go back in the Mercantile Business, I will sell on easy terms and at a bargain my desirable residence on Lancaster Street. House of seven rooms, in addition good cellar, two little porch rooms, hall and a first-class bath room. Also good barn, meat house, warehouse, coal house and other outbuildings, and a fine garden. Residence, outbuildings and fencing in first-class repair; partly new. Residence has telephone, water works, electric lights and just, but not least, fine location and best of neighbors. Only two minutes walk from the L. & N. Depot. For price and terms call on or address

THOS. C. BELL, Phone 121, Stanford, Ky.

Public Sale of Shorthorn Cattle!

21 of Oakland and Treadnook Herds. Auction at Danville, Ky., Monday, Sept. 17, 1906. Messrs. W. D. and J. H. Moore. Apply to this office for catalogue.

SAM ROBINSON,

Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Caps, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Etc.; the store that saves you money.

Next Door to Lincoln County National Bank, STANFORD, KY.